

Pi Day Challenge ("we," "us," or "our") operates www.pidaychallenge.com (the "Site"). We are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring transparency in how we collect, use, and safeguard your personal information. This Privacy Policy outlines our practices in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA).

1. Information We Collect

We collect only the following personal information:

- Email Address: This is used to allow users to save their progress and resume the challenge later.
- Username (Optional): Users can create a display name for the leaderboard.

We do not collect any other personally identifiable information.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your email address solely to:

- Enable you to save and retrieve your progress on the Pi Day Challenge.
- Provide customer support if you experience issues with progress restoration.

We do not sell, share, or distribute email addresses to third parties.

3. FERPA Compliance

If an educational institution registers students for the Pi Day Challenge, we handle student information in compliance with FERPA. We do not disclose or share student data except as authorized by the institution or as required by law.

4. COPPA Compliance

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 without parental consent. If we become aware that we have collected such information without appropriate consent, we will delete it promptly.

If you are a parent or guardian and believe your child has provided their email address without your consent, please contact us at [Insert Contact Email].

5. CCPA Compliance (For California Residents)

California residents have the following rights under the CCPA:

- Right to Know: You may request details about the data we collect about you.
- Right to Delete: You may request that we delete your email address from our records.
- Right to Opt-Out: While we do not sell personal information, you may still request that we do not share your data.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at [Insert Contact Email]. We will verify your request before processing it.

6. Log Data and Cookies

Like many websites, we collect basic information that your browser sends when you visit our Site ("Log Data"). This includes:

- IP address
- Browser type and version
- Pages visited, time, and date of visit
- Time spent on pages and other statistics

We use Google Analytics to monitor and analyze this information to improve our Site. We also use cookies to collect data and enhance the user experience. You can configure your browser to refuse cookies, but this may limit certain features of our Site.

7. Data Security

We take reasonable security measures to protect stored email addresses, including encryption and access controls. However, no method of electronic storage is 100% secure.

8. Data Retention

We retain email addresses only as long as necessary to provide users with the ability to save and retrieve their progress. Users may request the deletion of their email address at any time by contacting us.

9. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated effective date. Continued use of the Site after changes take effect constitutes acceptance of the revised policy.
